

HCCH AP Week is an international conference aimed at enhancing understanding and reviewing the implementation of the HCCH conventions.

It provides a valuable forum for experts from academia, practice, and government who are interested in the field of private international law to come together and exchange ideas.

Programme Highlights

- 25 June (Day 1): Family Law

Discussion on key issues and cases relating to HCCH family law conventions, including the 1993 Adoption Convention, the 1980 Child Abduction Convention, and the 2007 Child Support Convention

- 26 June (Day 2): Judiciary

In-depth discussions on court-related matters, including the 1965 Service Convention, the 1970 Evidence Convention, the 2005 Choice of Court Convention, the 2019 Judgments Convention, and the Jurisdiction Project

- 27 June (Day 3): Emerging Issues in Private International Law

Exploration of private international law issues in emerging areas such as the carbon market and digital tokens

We warmly welcome the participation of all those interested.

For more information and to register, please visit the official website: www.hcchapweek2025.org

The conference will be held in a hybrid format (in-person and online).